ICE DRIVING IN FINLAND

Experience and learn to drive a car safely on icy roads

Description: How do Finns manage driving a car in the wintertime? The Finnish roads are covered with ice but they know how to do it safely. Now you have the opportunity to learn the same skills! Our expert traffic teachers show you the way to stay on the road, in the wintry weather of Finland. Ice Driving in Finland is an exciting experience that gives you useful skills to go home with. A driver's license is required.

Duration: 5 hours including travel time from Helsinki city.

Availability: 1.12. - 30.4.

Site: The program takes place on an Ice Track in Vantaa.

Language: English. Other languages possible on request.

Group size: 6-20 persons.

Program includes:

- 1 hour theory lesson about driving in the winter
- 2 hours driving practice on an authentic ice or wet surface
- A delicious lunch outside by campfire
- A car to drive during the program (three drivers share one car)
- Services of our expert guides
- A Diploma to take home with you
- All equipment needed for a comfortable Ice Driving session

We reserve the right for program changes.

This program is also available for smaller groups than the specified min. group size, but the price per person then gets higher. See a separate price list.
